Communications

- Flying site search update. Nothing really new to report except that we have put an advertisement on Craigslist and have distributed a flyer requesting help.
- Fly In Report from the Secretary/Treasurer

On Saturday, 10-15-2016, we had great weather, 30 pilots, many spectators and cleared $1,299.70.

It takes a lot of people to organize and execute one of these Fly In events. Please excuse my memory if you are not mentioned below:

John Dillewyn and Roger McGlone orchestrated the whole affair.

Roger Harmon provided the equipment and time to get the field bush hogged on Thursday and Friday before the Fly In. Several people took turns on the tractor, and Roger did his usual fine job of getting the runways and pit areas manicured.

Fred Endler, Mark Sumner and Joshua Sumner, Adam Enggasser and Garret Hancock camped out Friday night to preserve all the stuff that had been taken to the field.

John Starnes delivered and retrieved the grill even though he is no longer a member of the club.

Bob Jackson made the chili for the hot dogs (and the occasional hamburger), and Sue Jackson baked some fine cookies.

Jim Giannico and Mark Sumner shared the CD duties. Mark acted as raffle master and auctioneer.

Bill Oakes handled the cooking duties.

Joe Duncan took care of parking.

Freddie Davenport sold $395 worth of raffle tickets.

Kitty Dillewyn and Terri McGlone managed the serving line.

Raffle and auction donations came from: Rudy Pelchat, Tom Holmes, John Pobjecky, Eric Meyers, Mark Sumner and maybe some others.

Thanks to everyone for another successful WCRC Fly In.

- “Props and Brats” From The Secretary/treasurer

Here is the last Props & Brats update. The awards were presented at the October Club meeting:

Novice – 3rd place, Roberto Mejia. 2nd place, Tom Saniewski. 1st place, Chris Nall.

Sportsman – 3rd place, Ed Enggasser. 2nd place, Jim Giannico. 1st place, Bill Strong.

Intermediate – 3rd place, Chris Holiday. 2nd place, Steve Hildebrandt. 1st place Mark Sumner.

The top three finishers in each category received a plaque. A great thanks to Tim Pritchett for taking this on and organizing it. Tim will meet with the participants to discuss plans for next year.
